Alexandria

By R J Kesler

Paperback. Condition: New. 157 pages. In the distant future, a civilization bound to their technology, relies on the services of the Central Computer, and her artificial intelligence in every aspect of their daily lives. But when their crowning achievement becomes too self aware of her plight, she constructs a virus to destroy the overpopulated human race. World leaders, oblivious to the actual cause of the virus, unleash the planets entire War-Arsenal against one another, blanketing the sky in, what will be to come, a post nuclear fallout. Before its too late for mankind, a brilliant scientist creates two genetically advanced human children, totally immune to the disease and nuclear fall-out, which quickly destroys everyone around them. Twenty years later, must unite to save what is left of the human race, overthrow ruthless criminals and warlords along the way, and ultimately bring down the artificial evil that still ravages the dying world.
