Joe Publics Political Perspective

By Billy Ray Chitwood

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 208 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.5in. Joe Publics Political Perspective is a book of observations from a citizen and a person who does not apologize for his conservative leanings. However, the author of this book understands that one political party does not hold all the answers to critical issues facing our nation. The current Democratic president, his administration and Democratic-controlled Senate have created in this persons opinion many problems in a number of areas. The author could be accused of ranting and raving as he comments on some of our very important issues. While members of both parties without question have contributed to costly legislation, too much wasteful spending, an entitlement mentality, this current president, his liberal supporters, and his his entire administration have been evasive, inept, irresponsible, and continually in a campaign mode. . . in short, the American people have not been served well by the people they elected to serve them. The most egregious problem this administration has created is the Affordable Care Act, or, the euphemistically labeled Obamacare. The author believes this act does more to harm our way of life than any piece of...
