Pan MacMillan, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A Far Away Magic is the second stunning novel full of magic and friendship from Amy Wilson, author of A Girl Called Owl. When Angel moves to a new school after the death of her parents, she isn't interested in making friends. Until she meets Bavar - a strange boy, tall, awkward and desperate to remain unseen, but who seems to have a kind of magic about him. Everyone and everything within Bavar's enchanted house is urging him to step up and protect the world from a magical rift through which monsters are travelling, the same monsters that killed Angel's parents. But Bavar doesn't want to follow the path that's been chosen for him - he wants to be normal; to disappear. Fighting one another as well as their fears, Angel and Bavar must find a way to repair the rift between the worlds, and themselves, before it's too late . . . Praise for A Girl Called Owl A story of wild winds and bitter frosts with the warmth of friendship at its heart - Abi Elphinstone, author of The Dreamsnatcher This debut is a sparklingly frosty read, full of feisty characters, myth and mystery - Daily Mail A winter treat full of frosty magic - Katherine Woodfine, author of The Mystery of the Clockwork Sparrow A perfect read for those who love wintery magic and a strong female character proving her place in the world.
