Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The horrendous murder of one of their own puts pressure on the Pensacola DEA's office head agent, Charlie Vaggar, to find those responsible. With warrants for persons of interest issued, Charlie sets out to build a case against the trio he believes to be involved. When Strap and Flip are picked up Charlie soon realizes that he is dealing with a different breed of hustlers that won't be broken or made to conform to the usual federal tactics of cooperation. To save his rapidly sinking career the agent will spare no expense, not even his marriage, as he becomes obsessed with obtaining a conviction. The death of Mr. Owens, the man that introduced Jake to a new lifestyle, created a need in Alexis that compounded Jake's burdens as he is forced to leave her possibly for good. A vow of allegiance causes Jake to resist the temptation of a life of exile in Haiti and return to the States to face the storms of street life like a soldier. For Jake, hindsight becomes 20/20 when confronted with the epitome of what he knew the streets had become and he longed for another chance to wash his hands of the perils of the streets for good. But first they had to overcome the imminent threat of life behind bars. When a fateful encounter with Alexis reveals Jake's location Charlie moves to apprehend him. What was supposed to be a routine extraction ends with Jake on the receiving end of a life threatening bullet to the chest. Now, with the upcoming grand jury session, the threat of an excessive force and negligence violation and the presence of the...
